

as practicable after cancellation becomes effective, but payment or tender of unearned premium is not a condition of cancellation.

12. Assignment. Assignment of interest under this Policy shall not bind the Insurer until its consent is endorsed hereon; if, however, the named insured shall die, this Policy shall cover the named insured's spouse, if a resident of the same household at the time of such death, and legal representative as named insured: Provided, That notice of cancellation addressed to the insured named in the Application and mailed to the address shown in this Policy shall be sufficient notice to effect cancellation of this Policy. If the legal representative of the named insured is not a person who was a permanent member of the named insured's household at the time of the death of the named insured, this Policy shall apply as it applied prior to such death but shall not apply to loss of property owned or used by such legal representative, a member of his household or a residence employee thereof, unless such loss occurs at a part of the premises occupied exclusively by said named insured's household.

13. Declarations. By signing the Application or by acceptance of this Policy the named insured certifies and agrees, under penalty of Federal law dealing with fraud and false representation (18 U.S.C. 1001), that the statements in the Application are his agreements and representations, that this Policy is issued in reliance upon the truth of such representations, that he is aware of the applicability of the Regulations issued by the Insurer, and that this Policy and said regulations embody all agreements existing between himself and the Insurer or any of its agents relating to this insurance.

In witness whereof, the Federal Insurance Administration has accepted the declarations of the Insured set forth in the Application and has caused this Policy to be issued.

Subpart B—Commercial Crime Insurance Coverage

§ 83.21 Description of commercial coverage.

(a) The purpose of this § 83.21 is descriptive only, and it shall be subject to the express terms and conditions of the policy form prescribed in § 83.26.

(b) The initial policy issued by the insurer for commercial properties shall be known as the Commercial Crime Insurance Policy. Subject to its terms, the policy reimburses an insured for loss from robbery inside the premises, robbery outside the premises (up to a limit of $5,000 unless an armed guard accompanies the insured's messenger), the wrongful taking of insured property by compelling an insured to admit a person into the premises, safe burglary and larceny incident thereto (up to a limit of $5,000 unless the insured property is in a Class E safe anchored to the floor), theft observed by the insured, burglary and larceny incident thereto, robbery of a watchman (not to exceed $50 for any one article of jewelry), and damage to the premises (of which the insured is owner or for which the insured is liable) as a result of any of the foregoing. The policy is subject to the exclusions set forth therein.

(c) The commercial crime insurance policy may be written for any industrial, commercial, nonprofit, or public property in accordance with the risk classifications set forth in § 83.24 and within the limits of coverage set forth in § 83.22, subject to the applicable requirements of this subchapter, such as the requirement for adequate protective devices set forth in subpart C of part 82 of this chapter.

(d) Certain portions of the materials contained in the sections that follow are based upon the Burglary Insurance Manual issued by the Insurance Services Office, 160 Water Street, New York, NY 10038, and are being reproduced in these regulations and in the related commercial crime insurance manual with the permission of the copyright owner.
